Kenſington, Sept. 18.

THE Lords of his Majeſty's moſt Honourable Privy Council have this Day, by his Majeſty's Command, wrote the following Letter to the Duke of Newcaſtle, Cuſtos Rotulorum of the County of Middleſex, viz.

AFTER our very hearty Commendations to your Grace: Whereas the Maſter Taylors and Staymakers in the Cities of London and Weſtminſter, and within the Weekly Bills of Mortality, have, by their Petition to his Majeſty in Council, repreſented, "That they have "long been ſubject to Inconveniences and Im- "poſitions, from the unlawful Combinations "of their Workmen, and that, in order to "put a Stop thereto, an Act of Parliament was "paſſed in the Seventh Year of the Reign of "his late Majeſty King George the Firſt, de- "claring theſe Combinations illegal, and regu- "lating the Wages of Journeymen Taylors "within the Weekly Bills of Mortality, and "inflicting Penalties on the Workmen, who "ſhould enter into any Contracts prohibited "by that Act; and alſo upon Maſter Taylors "and Journeymen, who ſhould not be con- "formable to the Directions of the Act with "reſpect to Wages; That notwithſtanding the "ſaid Act, a very extraordinary Combination "hath of late been entered into by great Num- "bers of Journeymen Taylors and Staymakers "(to the Number of about Fifteen Thouſand) to "advance their Wages greatly above what is "limited in the Act of Parliament; and the "Perſons concerned in this Combination being "ſupported and encouraged by the Keepers of "Licenſed Alehouſes, where they reſort to "ſpend their Time and Money, threaten to "fire the Houſes of the Petitioners, and to de- "ſtroy them in Caſe they refuſe to comply "with their Demands, or go about to redreſs "themſelves by Courſe of Law: That they "have violently beaten and abuſed the Work- "men in their own Houſes, who have been "willing to work for the Wages preſcribed by "the Act of Parliament; and daily threaten "the Petitioners and the Workmen with other "Violences, in Caſe they will not ſubmit to "their Terms, ſo that the Petitioners are not able "to carry on their Trade; and the Workmen "in other Trades are thereby greatly encouraged "to offend in like Manner, to the great Detri- "ment of the Publick, and in Defiance and "Contempt of his Majeſty's Laws and Go- "vernment:" His Majeſty having taken the ſame into his Royal Conſideration, together with ſeveral Affidavits to verify the Facts contained in the ſaid Petition, not only of the Maſter Taylors and Staymakers, but of ſeveral of the Journeymen who have refuſed to enter into the ſaid Combination, and alſo of ſome of the Victuallers, at whoſe Houſes the ſaid Journeymen have ſo aſſembled: And his Majeſty being deſirous that a ſpeedy Stop ſhould be put to ſuch unlawful Combinations, and that the Offenders ſhould be brought to condign Puniſhment; We do therefore, in his Majeſty's Name, and by his expreſs Command, hereby pray and require your Grace to recommend it, in the ſtrongeſt Manner, to the Juſtices of the Peace within the County of Middleſex, to carry into immediate Execution the aforementioned Act of Parliament, paſſed in the Seventh Year of his late Majeſty's Reign, intituled, "An Act for re- "gulating the Journeymen Taylors within the "Weekly Bills of Mortality," and to uſe their utmoſt Endeavours to prevent and ſuppreſs all riotous and other unlawful Aſſemblies, and all Combinations and Confederacies that have been or ſhall be entered into, to encourage a Diſobedience thereto; and that they do take all proper Methods to revoke the Licences granted to ſuch Victuallers or Occupiers of Publick Houſes, as ſhall appear to them to have been concerned in giving any Support or Encouragement to ſuch unlawful Combinations and Confederacies; and to that End, that they do call before them the High Conſtables, and other proper Officers under their Direction, and give them the ſtricteſt Orders; and likewiſe iſſue their Warrants for apprehending and ſeizing all Perſons offending herein, in order to their being examined, and dealt with according to Law. And ſo not doubting of your Grace's ready Compliance herewith, We bid your Grace very heartily farewell. From the Council Chamber at Kenſington, the 18th Day of September 1744.

From the Auſtrian Camp in Bohemia.

Sept. 15. We got every thing ready to march. The ſame Day the Huſſars and the Hungarian Infantry, and Trenk's Pandours, who arrived the Day before at Cherowitz, came to our Camp at Lacowitz. That Day a great many Pruſſian Deſerters, as well Huſſars as Infantry, came over to us.

16. We were upon the Point of Marching in order to approach the Town of Prague, and the River Moldau, when we learn'd that it could not poſſibly hold out any longer againſt the terrible Fire of the Pruſſians, who, ever ſince the 11th of this Month, had every Day thrown 2000 Bombs into it. Lieutenant Colonel Baron Hoym took To-day two Pruſſian Officers Priſoners, and one Cornet and 15 Huſſars ſurrendred themſelves to us.

17. This Day we have remained here, and received the News by Spies, Deſerters, and Priſoners, that the Town of Prague ſurrendred Yeſterday in the Afternoon.

18. Early in the Morning we detached Major Petrani, of Baronai's Regiment, who commanded the advanced Poſts at Konigſaal, to paſs the Moldau with 200 Horſe. He entred with great Bravery into the Camp of the Enemy, which was on the other Side of the River, and ſpread a great Alarm amongſt them; but their Fire being very brisk, he retired without Loſs, and in good Order, bringing off with him 12 Priſoners and 53 Horſes. The ſame Day the News that the Town of Prague had capitulated, was confirmed to us from all Sides, but the Enemy prevented our getting any Particulars of the Capitulation. Upon Advice that the whole Army of the Enemy was in Motion on the other Side, and that a Party was actually at Yeſſenitz, we reſolved in like Manner to move.

19. We marched to Cherowitz, where we not only received the poſitive Confirmation of what is before-mentioned, but were alſo aſſured, that the Enemy, by forced Marches, were got to Aundratitz; whereupon we have made the neceſſary Diſpoſitions for harraſſing them in their March, in order to retard it as much as poſſible.

Vienna, September 18, N. S. General Nadaſti will be arrived in Bohemia in a very few Days, with 9000 Irregular Horſe of all Kinds. Prince Charles will ſet out from hence the Day after To-morrow. Count Seckendorf is marched from Luffen to Norlingen, where he is to be joined by the Heſſians. A good Body of Inſurgents is upon the Point of marching from the Side of Jablunka.

Warſaw, September 19, N. S. We hear from Kiow, that her Imperial Majeſty was expected in that City the 15th Inſtant, where ſhe propoſed to ſtay till the 25th, and then to return to Moſcow. This Court ſets out this Morning for Grodno; but being to ſtay on the Way on ſome Hunting Parties, will not get thither till the 28th.

Berlin, September 26, N. S. It is given out here, that the King of Pruſſia has left a Garriſon in Prague of 8000 Men, under the Command of General Einſiedel; that he has ſent a Body of Troops, commanded by Marſhal Schwerin, to Egra; and that he leads the reſt of his Army towards Budweis. The Princeſs of Pruſſia, Wife to Prince William and Siſter to the Queen Regent, was delivered of a Prince Yeſterday Morning. This Court has granted a Paſſage through Sileſia to the five Regiments of Light Horſe and Uhlans, which the King of Poland is marching into Saxony.

Hambourg, September 29, N. S. Count Henning Gyllembourg, Nephew to the Miniſter of that Name, is ſent to Ruſſia, with the Notifications of the Arrival in Sweden and of the Marriage of the Princeſs Ulrica of Pruſſia with the Prince Succeſſor. Count Beſtuchef arrived at Dantzick the 21ſt Inſtant, and propoſed to ſet out the 24th for Grodno, where the Poliſh Court was expected the 28th.

Bruſſels, September 30, N. S. The Allied Army, under the Command of Marſhal Wade and the Duke of Aremberg, began to break up from their Camp at Chateau d'Anſtein, Sainghin, &c. on the 28th Inſtant. The heavy Baggage began to repaſs the Marque about Six in the Evening; and the whole Army had Orders to defile and repaſs that River early the next Morning.

Amſterdam, October 2. The Six Dutch Men of War which remained in the Texel, have taken the Opportunity of the preſent Eaſterly Winds to ſet ſail for Portſmouth.

Hague, October 2. The laſt Letters from Ratisbon bring an Account, that his Britannick Majeſty's Ambaſſador, the Earl of Holderneſſe, upon his Arrival there, had received an Expreſs from Count Seckendorf, with Compliments and Excuſes for the Treatment his Excellency had met with from the Imperial Huſſars, and from Count de St. Germain; and that the Declaration which he had been obliged to give, had been returned to him. By our freſheſt Advices from Bohemia, by the Way of Dreſden, the King of Pruſſia is ſaid to be pointing his March towards Moravia, and to be advanced to a Place called Dibiſchau. It is likewiſe ſaid that Count Seckendorf's Corps is to operate on the Side of Bohemia, and that France has granted his Pruſſian Majeſty a Corps of Troops, which is to winter in Bergue and Juliers, in order to be at hand to cover his Poſſeſſions upon the Rhine and Meuſe. Some Merchants here have News by Sea, that Admiral Balchen, with his whole Fleet, ſailed on the 12th paſt N. S. from the Heighth of Lisbon for the Streights. Count Naſſau continues in a very weak and almoſt deſperate State of Health; and having diveſted himſelf of the Command in Chief of the Dutch Troops, the ſame is fallen upon General Cronſtrom.
